

WEATHER INDICATIONS TO-DAY.
For Tennessee and the Ohio valley, clear, with partly cloudy weather, winds mostly northwesterly, slightly higher barometer, in the eastern portions stationary or lower temperature.

Griz's "Southern Democrat" has not yet shown up.

New York wholesale dealers have advanced the price of tea to ten dollars a ton.

W. T. WRIGHT, the famous English composer of popular songs and ballads, is dead.

DEADWOOD, according to the census returns, has a population of four thousand two hundred and fifty.

JOSEPH D. DUDLEY, one of the oldest residents and merchants of Buffalo, died in this city yesterday, aged sixty-eight.

One hundred and nineteen miners were in the Welsh coal-pit which exploded Tuesday, and all are thought to have perished.

MISSISSIPPI, through her State board of health, has adopted quarantine regulations against New Orleans similar to those in force here.

THE SULTAN OF TURKEY, becoming alarmed at the intrigues of the city of Constantinople, has expressed a willingness to abdicate. He will so doubt receive the desired permission.

CHARLES COX, the negro murderer of Mrs. Hall, was hanged in the city of New York yesterday. He hoped for a clemency, but it was refused.

PROF. THOMAS left the Cincinnati college of music under circumstances that have attracted much curiosity. The official "Correspondence" upon the subject, published by E. C. Clark & Co., Cincinnati, has reached us.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made for a race between Courtney and Josh Ward. The race will be for five hundred dollars a side, and will be pulled over a course on the Cincinnati river, near Middletown, distance five miles. The date is fixed for Saturday, August 23rd.

DEBOW'S REVIEW, for June, contains an article on "Our Black Possession," which thoroughly enters the question of labor in this and other countries, how it is obtained, and is influenced by organic and external conditions. Its thoughtful and scholarly pages merit serious and profound attention.

PATHE, leader of the invasion into Oklahoma, was with twenty-two of his followers, arrested and placed under a guard of United States soldiers at Fort Smith, Arkansas. The government seems determined to prevent encroachment on the rights of the Indians, and restless adventures seem just as determined to make forcible entry into the coveted territory.

THE city council of Little Rock yesterday unanimously re-elected Police-Judge Stevenson, whom they had suspended a few days before, pending an investigation into his accounts. There seems to be a fatality about the position. Judge Warwick, four years ago, had trouble in settling his accounts; Judge Foster, who followed Warwick, had a like misfortune; and now Judge Stevenson has just thrown the council in another wrestle over his accounts.

MARSHALL MORTON, who has been at the head of the police department at Dallas, Texas, for some years, has made some very damaging statements against Mayor Thurmond, of the same town, declaring that Thurmond "stands in" with the gamblers and thieves of the place instead of trying to punish them. An examination is now going on, the result of which will be soon known.

THE report of the criminal court attorney-general, advising the abolition of the county workhouse system on Presidents island, will attract attention. The attorney-general is dissatisfied from the excessive cost of the workhouse system, and the treatment of the unfortunate prisoners were treated with horrible cruelty and brutality by the guards and others in charge of the farm workhouse, and will, at the earliest possible moment, send bills of indictment before the grand jury. Such tales of cruelty are shocking to humanity and a disgrace to civilization.
